

Some useful Information

www.womenssportsfoundation.org

Useful educational resources and video content ideal for use in schools.

www.thejustincampaign.com

Useful information on progress made within challenging homophobia in football

www.kickitout.org

One game one community, information on equality in football.

www.schools-out.org.uk

Toolkits and information for schools and teachers

www.intercomtrust.org.uk

Information on help and advocacy and LGBT awareness training

Some interesting reads:

Trailblazing

A fascinating and informative book from Dr Eric Anderson. This will provide the reader with an insight into the barriers that exist within sport and the struggles endured by Dr Anderson and his athletes to challenge them.

In the Game: Sport, homophobia and gay make athletes.

Another text from Dr Anderson, a leading researcher in this field. This will provide any coach with an underpinning knowledge of the origins and causes of homophobia and details information which will be very useful in developing a strategy to challenge the root causes of homophobia.

Strong women deep closets

Provides a critical history of discrimination and prejudice against lesbians in sport, and calls for openness and justice in women's sport. The book is written by Pat Griffin, a leading researcher in this subject and is based on theoretical and historical foundations.